February 23, 2009

Dear Mr. Picard –

Like so many other victims, I have lost most of my life savings by directly investing with Bernard Madoff (although I may be the oldest at nearly 98). For many years, until early 2007 I had two accounts – one, Arthur and Sophie Blecker (misspelled Sofie on the account), and another Aaron Blecker. (I go by both names. See enclosed account statements.) The accounts were under different names, opened at separate times to serve separate purposes. I personally submitted separate schedules each year for each account, detailing every stock transaction. (I have some of that paperwork still in cartons and could supply it.) Sometime early in 2007, someone from Madoff told me they would no longer handle accounts under $1million dollars. They had accommodated me for years, because Bill Alpern, the brother of Bernard Madoff's father in law, was a dear friend. In May 2007 when they forced me to merge them, as the submitted statements show, Aaron Blecker – 1-B0156-3-0 -- had $753,107.40. The other, Arthur Blecker & Sofie Blecker –1-B0157-3-0 – had $1,480,131.54 (see attached statement.) I am filing a SIPA claim for each.

Forced to combine them, turning 95, we were setting up trusts for peace of mind and satisfaction at knowing that my decades of hard work as a solo practitioner would ensure that our children and their children struggled less than I, and the little ones' college education was assured. So, as Madoff demanded, I combined the two accounts into one, under the new name Aaron Blecker Rev Trust U/A/D 3/15/07. (See June 30, 2007 statement.) On December 11, 2008, when the fraud was announced, the account as of November 30, 2008 had approximately 2.6 million dollars. (see attached statement.)

Thus I am filing separate claims for $500,000 protection each for Aaron Blecker, and Arthur Blecker and Sofie Blecker. If you reject these separate claims for separate accounts I had in 2007 and was compelled by Madoff to abandon, of course I am filing in the alternative for SIPA protection for Aaron Blecker Revised Trust which had $2.6 million as of Dec. 11, 2008.

I hope you will agree that both original accounts are legally protected. But if you do reject that claim, would you please inform me quickly and act quickly on my indisputable claim re the later trust account. I never withdrew a penny. My wife Sophie died this past October – my consolation has been that she was spared this financial shock that mocks assurances I proudly gave my children, who invested their own money: "Don't worry, there's always Madoff."

Hoping to be informed of my status and reimbursed quickly, I am

Aaron Blecker
